

The Wisconsin No Call list is an effective and easy to use method of eliminating the UNWANTED telephone solicitations and should not be weakened as proposed by the banking industry lobbyists. I urge you to reject the claims of the banking industry and to use the Wisconsin Program as a model to strengthen the weak and loophole riddled federal no call list.